UEA hosts Ninth Annual Awards Banquet

The Utah Education Association is proud to honor a few of the many who make a difference in the lives of children during its Ninth Annual “Superstars in Education” Awards Banquet. The UEA will host the 2009 “Superstars in Education” Awards Banquet on Thursday, October 1 at the Hilton Garden Inn in Sandy, Utah. Ten UEA members will receive William and Pat Child “Excellence in Teaching” awards, recognizing dedication and distinction in the classroom. The UEA will present its highest honor, the UEA Honor Roll Award, for outstanding service to public education in addition to the Charles E. Bennett Award for Human and Civil Rights in Utah.

This year’s event will feature NEA Vice President Lily Eskelsen. Eskelsen is one of the highest-ranking labor leaders in the country and one of its most influential Hispanic educators. Named Utah Teacher of the Year in 1989 and elected UEA president in 1991, she has since served in key leadership posts at the NEA. This is sure to be an enjoyable evening filled with humor and warm stories. 🍏
